

10 Year Limited Warranty-

Pro-Flash Building Products Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "PFBP") warrants that the goods of its manufacturer are free from all defects and are in accordance with the normal use they are destined for: in the event that any of the goods are defective, defective goods inasmuch as such defect is notified to PFBP within ten (10) years from the delivery date of the goods, being understood that any dismantling, installation, transportation and packaging costs will be bore by the buyer.

This limited warranty shall not be effective unless the warranted products were properly installed by an appropriately licensed contractor. This limited warranty only provides coverage to the original owner of the structure upon which the product is installed. If the original owner is a builder, then the coverage may be transferred once to the new owner.

If the warranted product is deemed defective or to have failed, PFBP, will provide replacement products or refund the original purchase price of the aforementioned products. The buyer expressly agrees that PFBP will not be held liable for any other damage, which might be incurred by the buyer in connection with the obligations of the warranty of which the buyer is the beneficiary.

PFBP reserves the right to make changes in design or material of any item or product without incurring any obligation on previously sold items, and to discontinue items at any time, without further notice.